

Pre-Course

Pre-Course is a Princeton Review Thailand specific course to help students with English reading, writing, listening and speaking. Pre-Course is a carefully designed pre-course for students with low verbal scores in TOEFL, GRE or GMAT.

The Princeton Review Difference

Pre-Course was developed by Princeton Review Thailand for Thai students. Our course was designed to give all students the necessary background required for a strong performance on the TOEFL, GRE or GMAT test. All students that fail to earn a high verbal score on their first TOEFL, GRE or GMAT test should consider taking the Pre-Course. Our course includes the following:

- Fully prepared manual and problem set
- Thai bilingual instructor
- Access to world-class Princeton Review instructors
- Comprehensive explanations for reading, writing, listening and speaking

When to take the Pre-Course

You should take FF on a schedule that will end before your subject prep date. If interested in Pre-Course, the Princeton Review Thailand sales staff will explain all the details, and offer a special discount if you enroll in Pre-Course and GMAT/GRE/TOEFL class.
